Laying the Corner-Stone of the Hyde Park Presbyterian Church.

Description of the Building and History of the Society.

Other Observations.

Yesterday afternoon a special dispatch of a Tribune reporter announced the laying of the Corner-Stone of the Hyde Park Presbyterian Church, and stated that the Rev. Dr. Patton would officiate. The reporter was by no means sure of the correctness of the statement, but, as he had been unable to learn anything definite, he thought it best to send it. Upon his arrival at the place he found that the statement was correct, and that Dr. Patton was to officiate. He did not, however, lay the stone, but merely delivered an address, and left the rest of the ceremony to be performed by others.

The ceremony was announced to take place at 4 o'clock, and at that hour a large crowd had assembled. The weather was very favorable, and the sun shone brightly. The building is of brick, and is to be 60 feet wide and 100 feet long. It will be built in the form of a cross, with a tower in the centre, and will be surmounted by a spire 150 feet high. The basement will be used for lecture-rooms, Sunday-school purposes, etc., and the main audience-room will be above. The building will be of the Gothic style of architecture, and will be finished in the most substantial manner. The cost of the building, when completed, will be about $75,000. The lot on which it is situated is 100 feet square, and is valued at $10,000. The building committee consists of Messrs. Thomas Hoyne, Chairman; Henry Lamberton, Secretary; Joseph Sargent, Treasurer; Dr. Hall, Dr. Patton, and Messrs. Wm. Bross, Wm. Blair, and Wm. Ogden. The trustees are Messrs. Thomas Hoyne, Henry Lamberton, Joseph Sargent, Dr. Hall, Dr. Patton, and Messrs. Wm. Bross, Wm. Blair, Wm. Ogden, Wm. Deering, and Wm. Hamilton.

The Rev. Dr. Patton, the pastor, was introduced by Mr. Hoyne, and spoke as follows:

I am not prepared to make a speech, but I will say a few words. I am glad to see so many present on this occasion, and I am glad to see the interest which is manifested in the enterprise. I am glad to see the spirit which has been manifested by the people of Hyde Park in the erection of this building
